PROFILE

Senior B2B marketing and GTM professional with 10+ years across technology, SaaS, and international markets. Combines broad marketing ownership with customer and market engagement, complex-solution messaging, account strategy, sales enablement, and revenue alignment. Most effective where Marketing, Sales, Product, and customers meet, representing meaningful technology, building credibility, and translating it into clear commercial value.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Account-Based Marketing Manager | HiBob — 2022 - 2025

Global HR technology SaaS platform serving 3,000+ companies.

- Owned tiered ABM strategy across SMB and enterprise segments, aligning audiences, buying-committee personas, intent signals, messaging, and channel mix.
- Partnered weekly with Sales and SDR teams to translate 6sense account intelligence into outreach priorities, engagement plays, and deal progression.
- Deployed account-level website personalization through Mutiny and used generative AI to accelerate planning, content development, and message adaptation while preserving brand consistency.
- Created sales enablement materials and delivered regional training in the US and UK, plus digital presentations at global virtual sales kickoffs.
- Contributed to programs that grew new-business ARR from approximately $50M to $100M+, increased ICP closed-won rates from 24% to 40%, and supported 3x average deal size in priority accounts.

Digital Marketing Manager | Allot — 2019 - 2021

Global network intelligence and cybersecurity company serving 500+ telecom providers.

- Developed global GTM campaigns for technically complex products and worked closely with Product Marketing and Sales on messaging, positioning, content, and enablement.
- Built market-facing thought leadership through webinars, brand video, podcast, and enterprise content for sophisticated telecom and cybersecurity audiences.
- Coordinated external agencies and vendors across content, events, and digital delivery, managing timelines, budgets, quality, and global stakeholders.

Director of Marketing | Cipia — 2021

Computer-vision technology company; six-month role during its public listing year.

- Coordinated vendors, product-launch reporting, social communications, and trade-show preparation; represented the company at industry events.

Senior Marketing Consultant | Penguin Strategies — 2018 - 2019

B2B SaaS marketing agency.

- Served as the strategic client point person across multiple technology accounts, leading targeting, messaging, integrated execution, and stakeholder reporting.
- Presented plans and results to client stakeholders while coordinating multiple concurrent programs.

Director of Content Marketing & Communications | Leibish & Co. — 2011 - 2018

Global luxury eCommerce brand.

- Built the marketing and communications function from scratch across positioning, content, email, PR, media relations, and international market representation.
- Developed lifecycle and digital programs supporting customer acquisition, retention, brand authority, and consistent communication across global markets.
- Represented the company at trade shows in Hong Kong, Las Vegas, Basel, and Los Angeles, building relationships with companies and journalists.
